

" MUSIC OF INDIA & IMPROVISATION "

TEACHER: Henri TOURNIER (Bansuri / Flutes)

PRESENTATION OF THE CURRICULUM

Training centered on the classical music of North India - Hindustani music - and improvisation, with an opening on the music of the South - Carnatic music.

Teaching under the prism of his emblematic flute, the bansuri flute; vocal and instrumental approach.

The music of India fascinates with its richness, strength and poetry. They come in multiple forms, systems, genres, styles. The music of India studied mainly here, is the classical music of North India called Hindustani music, in the Khayal genre. The Grand Master of Sitar, Pandit Ravi Shankar was the privileged ambassador, then Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia whose assistant was Henri Tournier for more than 25 years at the Conservatory of Rotterdam-Codarts.

The training is aimed at musicians practicing the bansuri flute, flute, singing, any instrument allowing the game in melismas and glissandi (violin, cello, double bass, fretless guitars, traditional instruments, ney, ...), professional level or students level end of 3rd cycle of conservatory (good amateur level), whatever their training (classical, baroque, jazz, traditional, contemporary music, ...), all ages combined (applications will be studied).

The musicians bring their instruments.

Because of the dual culture of the trainer (classical and contemporary Western music, Carnatic music then Hindustani music), the teaching will integrate multiple pedagogical approaches, especially about improvisation.
