METHODS OF SETTLEMENT AND REFUNDING

The payment for the year will be required through wire transfer to our account at time of registration. Our full bank address will be provided by email. One payment per quarter might be considered. An invoice will be provided upon receipt of the payment.

Registration fees are due for the current month.

Reimbursement conditions apply to students where exceptional circumstances attributable to the IIWM do not permit the continuation of the education (prorated refund), but also for reasons attributable to the student (sickness, move or any major personal circumstances) that could not be anticipated, not allowing the student to complete his or her education (prorated refund on production of supporting documents).

Where, after the start of the courses, a student cannot continue his education for duly justified reasons, a withdrawal may be requested by sending a detailed registered letter with acknowledgement to IIWM or by normal post, for which the postmark will be the evidence.
